Assessors Set 1983 Tax Rate

Meeting in special session at 4 p. m. Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 3 in the Town Office Meeting Room, the Board of Assessors voted to set the 1983 tax rate at $21.50 per $1,000 of valuation. The 1982 rate is the same as in 1982.

The tax rate is based on total town valuation (less exemptions) of $33,059,300 and net appropriations totaling $693,987.83. Gross appropriations totaling $919,070.19 included County Tax, $31,683; Municipal appropriation, $465,867.61; School appropriation, $421,509.58; and overlay, $16,790. Other income totalling $225,082.36 included State Municipal Revenue Sharing, $49,492.36; interest from School and Ministerial Funds, $500; General Revenue Sharing, $55,300; Surplus, $120,000. The gross appropriation of $919,070.19 less the other income of $225,082.36 provided the net appropriation of $693,987.83 to be raised by local property tax.

The Board of Selectmen will meet in special session tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 in the Town Office Meeting Room to hear the Treasurer's present money management data comparing possible

BETHEL HISTORICAL SOCIETY HEARS OF HISTORY OF KATAHDIN IRON WORKS

Dr. Joel Eastman, Chairman of the History Department, University of Southern Maine was the featured speaker at the monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society, held in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House Aug. 4. Dr. Eastman provided a detailed look at the history of the Katahdin Iron Works and iron processing plant that once existed in north central Maine between the years 1845 and 1890. The famed Maine geographer Moses Greenleaf, a resident of nearby Williamsburg, was the first to become aware of the area's potential for iron deposits by tracing the meaning of the Indian name for the west branch of the Pleasant River. Greenleaf tried to interest others but it was not until 1836 that the Maine Legislature incorporated the Pleasant River Iron and Steel Company. This concern did not prosper because of the panic of 1837, the unstable prices, the national tariff policy and competion with European markets. But in 1841 the Pleasant River Iron and Steel Company became the Maine Iron Company, reorganized to overcome some of the obstacles that plagued the first company. Problems, however, abounded in mining, transportation, smelting and marketing. Again another consolidation seemed the best way

EAST ANDOVER

Mrs. Marjorie Jodrey, Cor. — Mrs. Ruth Wentworth and granddaughter, Kathy, of Albion, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hilton and two children of Kittery spent the week end with Mrs. Eva Bodwell and Allan.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Thurston, Jon and Kurt, and Mrs. Maggie Humphrey, Melissa and Josie, attended the housewarming in Buxton on Sunday for his uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Glover.

Jeff Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, South Andover, broke his foot on Friday in a freak swimming accident.

The Old Home Day activities were attended by a very large crowd. Even the rain didn't dampen the spirit of celebration. Some events had to be postponed awhile but as soon as the rain let up they started again. It was really a very nice time for everyone, young and old.

Ivy Thurston spent the week end in Rumford with her sister, Mrs. Della Howard. On Saturday they and John Howard attended the wedding in South Portland of Miss Brenda Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard, and Warren Michaelson.

Mrs. Francis Humphrey, Melissa and Josie, of Manchester, N. H., spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jodrey. Mrs. Jodrey and grandson, Jon Thurston, returned home with her on Monday for a few days.

Many former residents of town returned for the "Old Home Day" celebration and parade on Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Thurston was a week end guest of her son, Ronald Thurston of Arundel and attended a housewarming for Verne and Vada Glover of Bar Mills.

The Ladies Aid meeting will be held Aug. 16 at Doris and Donald French's cottage at Roxbury Pond.

Old Home Sunday was held Sunday, Aug. 7, at the First Congregational Church at 11:15 a. m., followed by a luncheon of salads and sandwiches with Anne Fox and Gertrude Percival as hostesses.

Sunday, Aug. 14, the speaker and candidate for the ministry of the First Congregational Church will be Rev. Lyndon Schendel of Minnesota. Luncheon will be served after the service. This will give the parishioners an opportunity to personally meet Rev. Schendel and his wife, Doris.

Elderwood News — Bernice Glover has gone to Holis to visit for a few days.

Tiffany Marston "slept over" Saturday night with Aunt Fannie.

Florence Hall was "teacher" on the Andover Wood products float in the Old Home Day parade.

The Alfred Marston's were at camp over the week end.

Catherine McGuire is in Rumford Community Hospital for tests. In the big wind Tuesday the screen house had to be rescued.

Nella Smith, who led the Old Home Day Parade, was a student of Florence Hall at the Elm Street School years ago. Nella is now "anchorman" on Channel Six News.

Elizabeth Sennett is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Conrad Haynes.

Dot Elliott, Marion Ladd, George Fraser and Florence Learned enjoyed a picnic lunch at the Manor, Tuesday.

CARD OF THANKS — Many thanks to all who sent cards and flowers and visited me in the hospital and since my return home. They were greatly appreciated.

B.E.A.R.S.

(Bethel Emergency Ambulance & Rescue Service)

Remember on Aug. 13 (rain date Aug. 14) will be the steak and lobster cook out for the B.E.A.R.S. members only at 12 noon. Take notice, the place has been changed —now to be held at Mary Myers' home.

Florence, Alma and Lula Merrill and Esther Sweetser spent the week end in Naples camping. While there they visited with Dick and Mem Enright and family.

Several of the B.E.A.R.S. will be testing First Aiders and E.M.T.s at Stephens Memorial Hospital on Tuesday night. This is for their ambulance license.

Shirley Morse's husband is in the hospital. All the B.E.A.R.S. send get-well wishes to him.

Safety Tip of the Week — Warm weather demands extra vigilance against the bacteria that causes food poisoning. Keep the food in your summer with these tips:

1. When shopping for food pick up your meat, poultry and dairy items last. Get them home and in to the refrigerator promptly.
2. Never buy food in leaking, bulging cans, or cracked jars.
3. Maintain refrigerator temperatures at 35 to 40°. Freezers should be kept at 0° or lower.
4. Thaw meats and poultry in the refrigerator or in a watertight package under water.
5. After handling raw meats or poultry be sure to wash your hands before touching other food.
6. Refrigerate all leftovers promptly.
7. Make sure all cooking utensils or containers are clean.

NOTES FROM THE BETHEL LIONS DEN

Although the Bethel Lions Club doesn't meet during the summer months, its members do enjoy getting together for fun. On Aug. 3, some of the members got together for what appears to be the first of many Mini-Golf tournaments during the summer. The results of this first tournament, after three rounds of play at Carmo Crafts Mini-Golf Course in West Bethel, placed Pat Murphy in 1st place for team #1. Team #2 had two players tied, Mac Gould and Ed Friel. A one-hole sudden death play off was held. Friel's first shot left him a few inches from the cup, but Mac's first shot, a hole in one left no question as to the tournament's top player. Mac Gould, overall low player, received a plaque for his efforts.

The Club hopes after a few more inter-club tournaments, to receive challenges from other local clubs or groups. This first tournament was great fun for all, if not a barrel of laughs for the spectators.

IN MEMORIAM — Richard W. Bean who passed away Aug. 12, 1981. There is always a silent heartache. Many a silent tear. But also beautiful memories. Of the one we love so dear; and sadly missed.

Participants will be able to focus their own interactions and leadership styles and determine their untapped leadership strengths.

Other aspects of the conference will include an examination of the ethics of local administration with Don Callan of the PBA at UMO, and a revenue sharing update with Fred Williams of the Office of Revenue Sharing.

Further information and preregistration materials for the Institute, designed to meet the needs of management professionals, are available from the Bureau of Public Administration, 162 College Ave., Orono. Registrations will also be accepted at the door.

JACKSON-SILVER POST PARTICIPATES IN ANDOVER OLD HOME DAY PARADE

Jackson-Silver Post #68, American Legion, Locke Mills, was invited to Andover Aug. 6 to lead their Old Home Day Parade with their colors. Heading up the group was Commander Charles Mason.

Warren Smith and Herb Lyon carried the flags, with Leroy Patten and Earl Merrill as color guards. Alanson Lovejoy and his family also were there.

Commander Mason recently called a special meeting. Amongst other business, the Veterans Day observance was planned. There will be a parade, public dinner and game party—plus a dance that Saturday night. The boys also want to have a New Year's Ball.

OXFORD POMONA #2

Oxford Pomona #2 met with Azisacos Grange at Wilson's Mills for the Aug. 2 meeting. Sixty-four were present at the meeting. A 6:30 supper was served by the host Grange.

Kitty Davis announced the deadline for CWA projects to be in. The Scholarship Chairman announced pens for sale and hoped everyone would at least buy one.

Pink Sash members attending were Slate Secretary Beatrice Sturtevant; Deputy Chester Hayes, New Hampshire; Lewis and Myrtle Bibeau; Jean Vancour, New Hampshire; and Gail Butterfield.

Nestor Tammien, Legislative Chairman, spoke on tax indexing.

A very lengthy discussion on paying dues was held which took up most of the evening.

The CWA held their mystery march while Dot Canwell, Richard Felt and Carl Brooks furnished music for the first number of the program.

The group sang Happy Birthday to Bertha Kilgore, Paris Grange, in honor of her birthday which fell on that day.

The orchestra playing gave way to a group who sang "Reach Out and Touch Someone" while the members held hands to accent the melody.

McGinley gave the address of welcome and Master of Oxford Pomona, Lewis Marocco, responded with thanks. Lewis Wood sang a comic solo which all enjoyed.

He is from South Paris Grange. Carl Brooks, Franklin, danced his dolls and dodo bird which are quite a novelty. Marguerite Marcotte rendered a piano solo with her dancing fingers. Half the program was cancelled out because time had been used up. Dot Canwell and Jean Vancour sang a duet and then the Lecturer read the closing Thought and Jean Vancour sang "The Lord's Prayer" in closing.

The next meeting will be held at Crooked River and will be installation.

Ernest and Gwendolyn Holt were welcomed at the meeting. He is the second oldest living master.

He is in the St. Joseph Hospital, Room 325, in Bangor, and out of the intensive care unit.

The Post is sorry to lose an old time member, John Tebbets. He died in San Francisco July 22.

Sympathy is extended to his family. Bob Croteau lost his mother recently and the members extend condolences to his family, also.

Regular meetings will resume in September.

Help is needed to get the pictures of some of the Past Post Commanders to hang in the Hall. Among the missing are Sonny Cummings, Ray Hakala, Eldon Bartlett and Charlie Mason.

Don't forget game parties on Friday nights. Come and enjoy the "no smoking" area.

Beat the Heat! Get out of the kitchen—slip away to your most cherished spot and let your tensions vanish—as serenely returns to your very soul in great soft blankets. Everyone has his own way of relaxing—and each one must pick whatever he or she knows can turn off the problem—and turn on the "lighter" side of you.

August is the month for enjoying, and among favorite activities can be camping at a beach—where rates are usually lowered for the rest of the season—or taking the children to one of the many amusement parks where you will find you can along with your child, relive your childhood fantasies and be a child yourself again for just a fleeting moment. Suddenly you find yourself propelled backward in time.

Last week end my husband and I did just that—and the beauty of the whole thing is—this letting go did more for us, than any doctor's visit or any medication he could have prescribed for either of us.

The beach wound like a broad ribbon around the shoreline and before us lay a spectacular view of the mountains, draped in greyish mists—for it was growing towards eventide and the reflections of the trees, lay mirrored upon the waters, and not a ripple was stirring about. Just the view was worth the trip!! The water was like stepping into a warm tepid bath—and one could just lie upon its surface—and float upon the cradling arms of the small ripples, drifting away, from reality—within its depths—you seem to be weightless and psychologically I suppose—magnifies the sense of being very minute—along with a sensation of being one with nature—just another small creature suspended in time, upon the face of God's earth.

The thrill of experiencing a fantasy with a youngster, revitalizes our very beings, and somehow, when the week end had passed—we realized that although the years are slipping us fast away, we are both still young at heart, and we discovered that after all, we still know how to dream, and can reach out and touch a part of us that we thought no longer existed.

Peace—everyone!

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fernand Coriveau this past week end were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Coriveau of Dover, N. H., and Linnie, Darlene, Nichole Coriveau of Rochester, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Yvon Coriveau were guests of honor at a 35th wedding anniversary party tendered at their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Norman Morin in Greene over the week end. There were over 50 people in attendance from Norway, West Paris, Dover, N. H., Katerford and town. A buffet lunch was served.

North Waterford

— Mrs. Jo Sanderson, Cor. —

Terri Weymouth is working part time at the Old Rowley Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stanton and son of South Harrison called on their father, Clyde, Sunday, July 31.

The American Legion, Stone- Smart Post of Norway, held their annual picnic at Jo Sanderson's Sunday, Aug. 7.

There will be a church supper, Aug. 23; baked beans, hot dishes, salads and pies.

Woodchucks seem more plentiful this year. Every day I seem to be hearing of these garden molesters destroying the gardens. We have two less here but my pet? is on the clover patch out back of the house every morning. If you have enough clover maybe the garden will not be masticated by them.

How do you make clover grow? Good old wood ashes scattered over the grass will promote the growth of clover. Try it. It may take a little time but have patience. It will do it in time.

Miss Marjorie Fuller, R. N., California; Mrs. Ardiella Gallant, Mexico, spent Thursday p. m. with their cousins, Mrs. Doris Lawrence and Mrs. Eveline Vatcher at Doris' home. They spent the afternoon reminiscing and eating monkey bread, but no coffee, too hot but we all had a good time.

The Tri Town Ambulance Squad had a very good attendance at their supper Aug. 6. We all did a bit of cooking to help the worthy cause.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wright, Jason and Andrew, Gilford, N. H., spent Thursday evening with her uncle, Joe Vatcher and Eveline. The boys were disappointed to find the geese and ducks all gone, but loved the dogs.

During the shower Monday afternoon the wind blew a tree down at Betty McAllister's on High Street, so Harlan Abbott went over to cut it up and care for it.

Mr. and Mrs. "Root" Lawrence had an old fashioned boiled dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reidy and her daughter's family of Tyngsboro, Mass., spent the week end at their trailer and attended the supper at West Paris.

Callers at Lawrences: Albert Penley, Sr., Rhoda Vatcher, Lloyd Huntley, Stevie Millett, Herman and Thelma Card, Joe and Eveline Vatcher.

out of the difficulties by the new proprietors headed by David Pinney who became the first president of the Katahdin Iron Works, incorporated by the Legislature in 1846. From 1872 to 1890, Katahdin Iron Works employed 200 workers and owned several homes, two large boarding houses, a town hall, a school, a post office, a photo salon, a company store and two farms to supply hay for the horses. There were 14 beehive charcoal kilns providing fuel for the blast furnace. A casting room was attached to the blasting room. At its height the Katahdin Iron Works produced 2,000 tons of raw iron annually.

The chronic problem of transportation was solved in 1882 by the building of a railroad from Bangor and 10 thousand cords of wood needed to make charcoal. This was not enough to save the plant from extinction since competition from the Mesabi Range ore fields in Minnesota made K. I. W. non-competitive. It went out of business in 1890 but the community continued to function as a tourist attraction until the burning of the hotel in 1912. Today the site is maintained as a historic site by the State of Maine.

A short business meeting preceded the program with Vice Pre-

School during FY 84. "92-142" monies in the amount of $26,600 are to be utilized to provide supplementary and contingency Special Education services for the entire District.

The creation of two full-time "Chapter I" Instructional Aide positions, one at Crescent Park School and the other at Telstar Middle School were approved by the Board, with authorization granted to the Superintendent to post the positions.

The bid of Locust Farms was accepted by the Directors to supply milk to S.A.D. 44 in FY 84. Their bid, for one-half pint (low fat) was 12.69 cents. Other bidders were: Hood Dairy, 12.73 cents; Gifford's All Star, 13.1 cents; Oakhurst, 18 cents.

Board members absent Monday evening: Desda Fogg, Andover, and Paul Hillquist, Woodstock.

The S.A.D. 44 Directors are scheduled to meet in special session on Saturday, Aug. 20, starting at 8 a. m., for the purpose of interviewing finalists for the position of Superintendent of Schools. The bulk of the meeting is to be in executive session.

The next regular meeting of the Board of Directors is scheduled for Monday evening, Aug. 22, at 7:30 in the Telstar Library.

The bride was attired in a long white gown of satin with lace overlay, sweetheart neckline and long lace sleeves. Her veil was waist length, attached to a satin cap. She carried a bouquet of red and white roses. Escorted down the aisle by her father, she was given in marriage by her parents.

WOODSTOCK HISTORICAL SOC. MEETING SATURDAY, AUG. 13

The next meeting of the Woodstock Historical Society will be a cook out at 5 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LaForest Twitchell on Saturday, Aug. 13. At that time a report of the Board of Trustees will be submitted. The following is a piece of history appropriate to the approach of fall. Every town had its school celebrations. At one Alden Chase made the following comments. He was the Nathaniel True of his day:

"The teachers of our early schools were by no means professionals. None of them entered upon school teaching as a life employment, for they could not afford it; the beggarly compensation allowed would not give them a living, and for a large part of the time they were engaged in other pursuits. The education of some of them may not have been of a very high order; nor did the demands of the school require it. But they were ahead of the scholars and generally more advanced than those who examined them, and so were able to pull through without serious trouble."

And the following quote:

"There is an element abroad in the land that is opposed to popular education. It is not indigenous in our soil, but comes from the old world beyond the sea. Its influence, as yet, is mostly confined to the cities and large villages, in some of which it begins to be seriously felt. It is voiced by a powerful religious sect; a sect that has sustained itself and flourished in the ignorance of the masses; a sect characterized in history by bigotry, superstition, and cruelty. Politicians pander to it, and herein lies its greatest danger. It is this encroachment upon the principles of popular education, that must be resisted by all legitimate means. We must sustain and uphold our public school system as we value the blessings of liberty, of happy homes and a prosperous and progressive country. In establishing the common schools, our forefathers planted well, better than they knew, and the harvest has been bountiful. Be it ours to see that the system receives no detriment. As we sow and plant and cultivate, so will the harvest be..."

Perhaps this is a rather elitist view, but so were our forefathers often elitist whatever their origins. Equally interesting is the fact that everyone will probably see their

This double feature will be held at the Bryant Pond Grange Hall with the supper beginning at 5:30 and the vaudeville show set for 7:30.

The hearty menu features "country kitchen" chicken casserole, mashed potato, green beans, salad, baked beans, rolls and will be highlighted by home baked pies and beverages.

NOTES FROM Evans Notch

White Mountain National Forest

Members of the Youth Conservation Corps for the Evans Notch Ranger District of the White Mountain National Forest have been working in the Bean Orchard Wildlife Area in the Bog Brook valley. Crew leader, Gary Jmanan, and employees, have constructed a network of trails for public use. Signing will be completed shortly and an interpretive brochure will be available at the site to enhance enjoyment of the area.

Construction work continues at the Gilead Picnic Area, Cold River Campground, and Hastings Campground to provide access to handicapped individuals. Visitors and campers may find some minor inconveniences as the construction work proceeds.

The Baldface Shelter area is being rehabilitated. A composting toilet has been installed and has proved to be a successful method of treating human waste at this back country site which has high use. In September, a contract for the re-siding and re-roofing of the shelter will be advertised. This effort, in addition to ground rehabilitation work, will conclude the project. Carpenters interested in bidding on the shelter work are asked to contact the District Ranger.

CORRECTION:

To clarify last week's article from the Woodstock Historical Society which mentioned the recently acquired property, Ruby Emery's records show the present building was built after 1873 by Fred Bartlett. The stone shed was there in 1870 when the Masons owned the land. The present building was not the stone shed as was incorrectly stated in the article.

FRIDAY CLUB'S FLOWER SHOW AT ANDOVER IS SUCCESS

The Friday Club's 33rd Annual Flower Show held this past Saturday during Andover's Old Home Day celebration was a tremendous success. Despite gray skies, the show, staged in the Historical Society building, came alive with rainbow colors from the 73 flower arrangements registered that morning.

A flower show is fun. It is a competition with some entries winning ribbons — but all exhibitors should feel a sense of accomplishment in beautifully created arrangements and the pleasure they provided.

It is with pleasure that the Friday Club announces the following winners of its 33rd show entitled "Schools of Yesteryear and Today".

"Blackberry Academy" — Adults: 1st, Jane Rich; 2nd (tie), Polly Johnston, Dick Johnston; 3rd, Gertrude Percival; H. M., Betsy Mixer. Children's class: 1st, Ric Mixer; 2nd, Angela Percival; 3rd, Stephanie Percival; H. M., Beth Kerchner, Charles Kerchner, Penny Percival.

Sunday River

— Joanne Fleet, Corres. —

Miss Peggy Morin visited with her mother, Mrs. Mary Morin on Sunday.

Betsy Clogston spent a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Morin.

Mr. and Mrs. David Fleet attended the reception for Ed and Jodie Deegan (nee Jodie Haines) at Locke Mills on Saturday. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dennis attended a birthday party for Andy Dennis at Mr. and Mrs. Scott Dennis' in Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dennis attended a family get together at Harrison and a cook out. A cousin from Hawaii was there also.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Morrison of Concord, Mass., were at the Morrison Lodge over the week end on their way home on Monday.

Mrs. Isabelle Rolfe, Mrs. Ede Holt and Merline Littlefield made a dooryard call on the Fleets.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore of Roundup, Mont., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Stan Roberts. They called on the David Fleets one morning this week.

This hot weather has brought out the swimmers. Every area has had some swimmers at part of the day or evening.

Sent in by Viva Whitman:

Thunder showers we had last Monday didn't stop us from starting the week out right. They were having Music Night at Franklin Grange in Bryant Pond, so as soon as the showers were over, we piled into the car and were on our way for a night of fun. We had it too. The music show was real nice and hope others enjoyed it like we did.

Tuesday, Russell brought broccoli and string beans from the garden to be fixed for the freezer; also made a blueberry cake to take to the Pomona meeting at Aziscons Grange Hall in Wilson's Mills where we were planning to go in the evening. Of course the raspberries needed picking, too, so we were busy people. However, Peggy, Russell and I were all ready and left shortly after 3 p. m. as we wanted to do a little sight-seeing along the way. It rained a little most of the way going up, but stopped when we got to Aziscons Dam and lake. We also wanted to see the new piece of road and bridge being built by the dam. Peggy's son-in-law has worked there for some time.

Had a good time at the meeting, preceded by a delicious supper, and a good program during the meeting. You have no doubt heard of the saying "We won't get home until morning," well, it was just about midnight then we got home and I'm sure later, or earlier, when some of the others reached their homes.

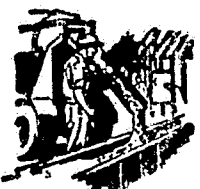

We had hoped we might see a moose somewhere along the way, but were disappointed. Some of the folks that live up there say they see moose every day, but they didn't show for us, even if it is supposed to be moose country. The only wild life we saw was a toad on the road and a raccoon crossing the road. Not too exciting!

case came to borrow Russell's ladders, for the Outward Bound group to use as they were to paint some more on the Grange Hall that day and Thursday also. I put up a picnic lunch for Russell and I, as it was our day to go to Fryeburg for doctor's appointments. Peggy took a sandwich along too, as she was our chauffeur. Didn't expect to pick raspberries that day, but Peggy noticed there were a lot of ripe ones, so I went out to help her and later Russell joined us to finish the job. There have been quite a lot of berries this year.

Had more vegetables to put into the freezer on Thursday and get ready for company too. Our Aunt Doris Hayes from Greenwood came and had lunch and visited with us. Where she lives alone, we wanted to have a good lunch with fresh vegetables, it isn't too hard. Later in the day, Peggy decided to mow the lawns, she said to work off the big lunch she ate. Guess we all ate more than we should, but it tastes better with company.

We knew Peggy would be busy on Friday, as she was making a cake for a wedding that was to take place on Saturday. I went to town to get a few groceries, and other things; Russell started picking berries and I helped what I could when I got back. The humidity wasn't helping Peggy with her work any, so in the afternoon, she turned on fans and left her work for awhile. We decided to go to the Grange Hall to see how much the Outward Bound group had got done. Russell and I didn't have a thing to do, so got busy and made some raspberry jam. As Russell says, "If you make it yourself, you know what goes into it." It tasted real good when finished so am sure it will be later on too.

Evening callers, for a few minutes, were Paul Billings and father, Bob, of Bryant Pond.

Saturday was a big day for us, as I had some cooking to do. While I was doing that, Russell picked a pail full of string beans, so I helped fix those and together, we got them into the freezer. Had an early lunch planned as we were to go to the wedding of Jody Haines and Edward Deegan at the West Bethel church and the reception at the Locke Mills Legion Hall afterward. It was a beautiful wedding ceremony and a lovely reception. Peggy was afraid her cake wouldn't be pretty enough but her effort wasn't in vain. It was a beautiful cake, and she to be proud of making. Just wish I could decorate cakes as well as she can.

I had a call from our brother's wife that morning telling us they were home for the week end and would like us to come if we could, so we stayed at the reception until about 4 p. m., then went home, changed clothes, gathered up some food to take along and headed for West Paris and a cookout. We really weren't hungry, but had a supper with the rest just the same. The cook out was held at David Yates' home on High Street with about 27 present. We all had a good visit and are always glad to see Lawrence and Grace when they get home from a truck run. Thunder showers woke us about 3:30 Sunday morning, so didn't get much more sleep after that. Peggy decided to go do wash and while she was gone, Russell and I went to the garden to get veg-

Marlen Bassett, our granddaughter, earned a scholarship from the workshop Fashion Institute Tech, and one on plain scholarship. Marlin also made the Dean's List.

Ada Malia, Pauline and Roy Smith called on Roger and Donna Woodward Tuesday evening.

Carolyn Knights of Oxford visited her mother, Pauline Smith, and took in the Church Fair. The Fair did well, I just called a neighbor. Neldona Charles, Bernice McInnis called at Leroy Smith's Tuesday.

Leroy Smith, Pauline, Ada Malia called on Kenneth Smith and family, Thursday evening.

Bob and Joan Cope of Cushman Pond, have had Bob's sister and family visiting there the past week.

Jerry and Mary Nelson of Andover, Mass., are here at their camp.

If these aren't dog days, what is?

Pauline and Leroy Smith, Beverly and Jack Bassett, also Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith of North Fryeburg, their six children and their families, attended the Smith Reunion at the Legion Hall at Bethel. Around 125 were out.

The firemen's auction was well attended Saturday.

Jack and Beverly Bassett called at their folks, Sunday evening.

There was a full church Sunday. Nine were in the choir. Flowers in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, summer guests, who have passed away. Also Joanne Wesley formerly of Fryeburg, who has become a minister, has a church on the coast. Joanne and family were there.

ettes. Berries needed picking again, so Russell started on them while I started lunch. My daughter Wynona and husband, Michael Woolf, with baby Courtney, came for lunch and to get a few berries; also, Mike needed a haircut, so Peggy turned barber. I had fun with the baby, spoiling her as Grandma's are supposed to do.

Got a call from Margaret Oman of Oxford that she had a new granddaughter born today. Her oldest daughter, Martha Michaud of St. Agatha, Maine, gave birth to an eight pound six ounce baby girl at about 10:00 a. m. Margaret is a relative and good friend of mine and our girls grew up together, so was glad to hear the good news. She said the family was doing just fine and she hopes to go up country to visit Martha and Lester and baby Heather. She loves all babies so I know she will have a good time holding her new granddaughter when she gets home from the hospital.

Have plans for tomorrow, so guess I better call this enough for this week. Till next writing, take care one and all.

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

Time, which nothing alters, stops, hastens, or slows has brought our summer into August and I've gone up another number in age since I wrote my last report. I was well remembered with many cards which I enjoyed.

I have had plenty to keep me busy this week and my hiking has been between here and the farm.

There are things of interest even in this short distance. I have found that we do not have to make field trips to encounter wild life. It can be observed through windows and along roadsides. As I walked, I recalled the time when a flicker began verbally flailing me from an evergreen I was now passing. His throat quivered, the black bar on it looked puffy and angry. As a rule he is good natured and is immaculate enough for an ambassador's ball room.

This time he was very unharmonious. I soon found out why. Appearing from a hole in a tree were two fuzzy heads. The female bombed in for a landing while holding in her mouth several grubs of different sizes. While the Mr. badgered me she finally wrapped herself against a snag and fed the fuzzy heads out thrust from the hole. I stood and let them have it out, over and around me like wild honeybees disturbed by a bear. It was worth watching. Today all was calm so I had no reason to stop.

The goldenrod is out! It always reminds me of fall. Across the pastures soon, the land will be turned into a humming sea of rich yellow. It will dance in the wind and break against the stone walls.

What a host of insects revolve around them. And come September monarch butterflies, as they begin their long migration southward, will cling to the showy blooms.

The heart-shaped asters are opening their blue-flowered plumes. By the ditches the scent of crushed mint followed my foot steps.

August is berry picking time and the birds and chipmunks know it. The cherry trees lose their fruit but I can but a jar of jam but not the song of a thrush by my window.

It has surely been a busy season as well as many pleasures.

To review it all—May passed with traditional flowers. June arrived with singing birds, sunny skies and buds bursting. July found the grass tall and daisies swaying daintily. August, berry time. The summer goes where all summers go never to return in the same garment. Nothing is the same from now to the next moment. So we should look to the wealth and beauty all about us and be proud that we are a part of it.

I had a nice surprise on Saturday when I looked out to see two of my nieces stepping from the car; Colista Cogswell and Lillian Strait, both my brother Fred's daughters. With them was their mother, and Colista's daughter, Karen. Karen will be a bride on next Saturday. So nice to see them. They were here from Freeport.

Doris Hayes had but one caller on Saturday, her son, Ardel from Auburn. He and his wife, Betty, had been on a fishing trip up Greenville way and he brought his mother a few.

Frank and Dot Curtis called to see Carroll Nottage in South Paris on Friday. Fred and Rena Curtis called earlier in the week. The days and evenings have been so warm and lovely that Christopher, of South Rumford, were on the Flat Road, Monday, visiting their folks.

Fannie Cummings was at her dentist Saturday to have a tooth pulled. All is O.K.

A twister took down a small birch tree back of Alanson Cummings' residence about 4:45 p. m. Monday.

Alanson Lovejoy and family attended Old Home Day in Andover on Saturday.

Looking Back

In the days of the Great Depression when I was in my teens Romance was carried on by mail Cars were few and far between. Some home town girls had local "beans"

But to many 'out of towners' were better How we waited for those trains! They were sure to bring a letter! A few girls waited for the "up" train.

Others waited for the "down"—The Post Office was the meeting place.

For everyone in town. Week-ends were the dating times. From Friday night through Sunday. Sunday was an early night. Because of work, or school, on Monday.

We might take a leisure stroll Along the streets of town. We'd maybe, sit on the old front porch.

If the rains come pouring down. Sometimes we went to a movie. Or maybe a local dance. Perhaps even a ride in a rumble seat.

If we dared to take that chance. In winter we took toboggan rides. Or went to the rink for skating. Red noses and frosty cheeks. Were a part of winter dating. The years have brought many changes.

Today's teens have it much better. But I still look fondly back to days Of that two cent stamp on a letter.
